Allied Positions Reported Much Improved in Northern Sector of Tunisia

ASSAULT INTENSIFIED

By WES GALLAGHER

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, March 18.—(AP)—United States troops led by Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, newly named commander of American forces on the Tunisian front, have recaptured Gafsa after a 30-mile drive and pressed on beyond that rail city and air base toward the Gabes bottleneck, it was announced today.

Only a few hours were required for reoccupation of the town which had been abandoned by Allied troops in the face of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's abortive mid-February offensive.

A communique said that little opposition was encountered and U. S. patrols, assisted by mobile French units and guarded by Allied aerial squadrons, drove after the retreating Germans into the area of El Guefar, 12 miles to the southeast.

Gafsa lies 85 miles northwest of Gabes, a major supply port for Marshal Rommel's forces in the Mareth Line zone, and restores the Allied threat to his rear.

The bulletin declared that Allied positions were improved in the northern sector of the Mareth Line front "both during the night of March 16 and 17 and during yesterday."

(This was the first authoritative Allied statement which would tend to bear out German radio reports that Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's Eighth Army had begun a four-division push against Marshal Erwin Rommel's lines in that region.)

(The German high command declared in a communique broadcast from Berlin and recorded by the Associated Press that "strong enemy infantry attacks against the south Tunisian front were repulsed, with heavy losses inflicted on the enemy." Strong German air formations participated in the fighting, it said.)

(In local fighting, German and Italian troops took prisoners, the Berlin bulletin said. A Rome broadcast communique, recorded by the Associated Press, said these totaled about 100. German fighters were said to have shot down five Allied planes, including four torpedo craft encountered over the Mediterranean.)

Reds Hold at Kharkov, Gain in North

War on the Russian front has taken a turn for the better in the Kharkov region. Bar-lines show territory the Nazis won back in the last few days, but the Soviets have stemmed the advance. On the central front the Reds report advances around Nikitinka and the cutting of rail line 65 miles northwest of Smolensk, German base.

Plan Offered to Raise Fund To Increase Teachers' Pay

About $30,000,000 Would Be Secured at Expense of Government

OTHER CAPITAL NEWS

Harrisburg, Mar. 18.—(P)—A plan was advanced by Republican leaders of the legislature today to raise up to $30,000,000 in the next biennium for school teachers' salaries "at the expense of the federal government" without increasing Pennsylvania state taxes. The money would be raised by directing computation of the emergency levy on corporate net incomes before payment of federal taxes instead of assessing the state tax on the amount left after federal taxes, as at present.

As explained by one Republican leader, who declined to be quoted by name, the plan also contemplates a reduction in the rate of the corporate net income levy from seven to four percent because of the larger figure on which it would be computed.

The proposed plan was discussed after Governor Martin emphasized he would oppose any move to set up new taxes to raise $26,000,000—the sum estimated as necessary to give 63,000 school (Turn to Page Nine)

GROVER FINDS WAY TO EASE BUTTER SHORTAGE

Wilkesburg, March 18.—(P)—Grocer E. R. Kregar almost started a riot when he offered his entire week's allotment of 2,100 pounds of butter yesterday to "first comers." Police estimated more than 2,000 were still in the lengthy line when the supply, doled out one pound to the customer, was exhausted.

"Butter was our biggest headache," explained Kregar. "Customers just wouldn't believe we didn't have butter and a lot of them insisted we were playing favorites. Now clerks can forget butter until next week."

Casualty Lists Will Appall Us Brig. Gen. Waite Warns

Bayway, N. J., March 18.—(P)—Brig. Gen. Alden H. Waite of the Chemical Warfare Service of the U. S. Army today cautioned against "smug or self-satisfied" thinking about the war and added that by spring the casualty lists "will appall us."

"Before we are finally victorious war must become away of life with every one of us," the general told listeners at an army-navy "E" award ceremony at the Standard Oil Development Company here.

Axis U-Boats Are Reported More Active

Convoy Battles Indicate Long-Expected Campaign Under Way

MANY ARE SENT DOWN

Washington, March 18.—(P)—Running battles between submarine packs and convoy ships indicated today that Germany has launched her expected mass U-boat campaign against Allied shipping in the North Atlantic.

From both sides of the ocean came reports of furious clashes with these results:

1. At least three U-boats were sunk and many others probably damaged by Allied escort vessels and the RAF during a 72-hour battle last month. The British admiralty's announcement, made in London, said the convoy "did not escape without loss" but gave no details in this connection.

2. The coast guard cutter Campbell rammed, shelled and sank one big enemy submarine and depth-bombed five others in a furious fight with an undersea wolf pack about three weeks ago. The navy said the Campbell was damaged but she reached port with the aid (Turn to Page Nine)

Treasury Is Well Satisfied

Washington, March 18.—(P)—The treasury has "every reason to be satisfied" with the progress of income tax collections, Secretary Morgenthau said today in reporting that news from collectors was "encouraging."

While March receipts in the nation's greatest income tax harvest as reported in the treasury's daily statement lagged behind last year, the secretary told his press conference "we can't find any trace of people willfully refusing to pay."

Income tax receipts for the first 16 days of March this year as reported in the daily statement were $1,382,358,354 compared with $1,391,371,310 in the corresponding period last year. However, returns for March 16 were more than double the amount reported for the day previous, the deadline for filing returns.

VICTIMS ARE EMPLOYED ON RIVER BARGE

Workers From Franklin and Tionesta Believed in Critical Condition At Hospital

ONE MAY LOSE A FOOT

By the explosion of a steel drum on the barge being built for use in the repair of the pier on the Hickory street bridge shortly before 1 o'clock today two employees of the H. T. Osborn Company, of Franklin, which has the contract for making repairs on the bridge, were seriously injured. The two men were at work with the welding torch and they presumed the steel barrel was empty but gasoline fumes apparently were still in the drum. Suddenly without warning an explosion took place.

The two who were injured are: Arthur Brill, Franklin, 41, who was badly cut by flying pieces of the steel drum. The force of the explosion badly tore his left foot and it was almost blown off.

Herbert Lehman, 40, Tionesta, injured internally and badly cut by flying steel.

Both were taken to the Warren General Hospital.

An alarm of fire was turned in and due to the location of the alarm but one piece of apparatus in the department responded. None of the fire apparatus was needed with the exception of the emergency truck. Fire Chief Kropf and several of his men removed the stretcher from the truck and gave first aid. Brill was placed on the stretcher and taken to the hospital.

The Peterson and Lutz ambulances both responded to the call and Lehman was placed in the Peterson ambulance and taken to the hospital.

The sound of the explosion reverberated throughout a large area and a crowd immediately poured onto the island. Patrolmen Park and Conboy kept the crowd from getting into the scene of the accident and controlled traffic.

The accident recalled to several of the older men of the Times Square section the explosion which robbed G. W. Baird, of his life. Men were engaged in removing an empty gasoline storage tank from the ground at the Baird Tire Shop on Market street when Mr. Baird approached smoking a cigar. A spark fired the gas fumes and in the resultant explosion Mr. Baird lost his life.

Labor Chiefs Critical Of WLB Policies

BY JOSEPH A. LOFTUS
Washington, March 18.—(P)—Labor leaders demanding a relaxation of the government's wage controls will lay their case before President Roosevelt Saturday at a meeting which conceivably may determine the War Labor Board's future.

The occasion is a periodic gathering of labor's victory committee, composed of AFL, CIO and Railroad Brotherhood officials who are critical of the policies which the board is administering.

Already shaken by internal dissension, the WLB faces an onslaught from still another quarter—John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers.

Experienced government observers believe the real crisis in the soft coal wage case will be postponed considerably beyond April 1, when the present agreement expires, but these and other informed sources question whether some measures to bolster WLB prestige and give it a harmonious front can be as long delayed.

Butter Earmarked For Warren State Hospital

Pittsburgh, March 18.—(P)—Five thousand pounds of butter were released in the Pittsburgh district today—but you couldn't buy a single pound of it.

The butter, from a reserve supply held off the market under government orders, was earmarked for Mayview City Hospital, the Allegheny County Home and Sta. Hospital at Woodville, Warren State Hospital, Leech Farm, and Torrance State Hospital.

Some of the institutions, the Pittsburgh food distribution committee's office said, had run out of butter.

Local Youth Is Sentenced For Evasion

Five Years in Prison is Penalty for Refusal to Serve in Army

PLEA IS IMPASSIONED

Harold Lewis Zimmerman, 22, a member of the sect of Jehovah's Witnesses will serve five years in prison for his refusal to serve in the U. S. Army or to classify himself on his questionnaire as a conscientious objector. The boy was sentenced in federal court at Erie yesterday by Judge F. P. Schoonmaker. Before sentence was passed Zimmerman spent 20 minutes delivering an oration before the court relative as to why he should not serve in the army.

His plea was an impassioned one and the young man, small in stature, spoke smoothly quoting passages from the Scriptures and pointing out that the draft boards would not recognize Jehovah's Witnesses as ministers. "If my draft board had recognized me as a minister, I would have been classified so and I would not have had to go to war," he declared.

His attorney, Henry McDonald, appointed by the court, had given the young man some advice but this was evidently unheeded and Zimmerman insisted that he make his lengthy speech.

Judge Schoonmaker watched the youth carefully as he spoke and there was intense quiet in the courtroom as the lad spoke. Zimmerman had carefully written out what he had to say and delivered his recitation much as a school boy would read an essay.

Not a word was spoken to interrupt the youth but at the conclusion of his manuscript he folded it and faced the court.

Then Judge Schoonmaker said, "I sentence you to five years in a federal prison to be designed in the United States attorney general."

Zimmerman turned crimson and he was led from the court room by a deputy United States marshal. From Erie the youth will be taken to a federal penitentiary.

Young Zimmerman has a host of friends in Warren who feel that the youth received some bad advice. In filing his questionnaire the young man described himself as a "conscientious objector."

This would have led him to be interned in a camp for objectors such as the one at Red Bridge and Duhring. However, he asked to revise his questionnaire and (Turn to Page Nine)

Will Confer On Ruml Plan

Washington, March 18.—(P)—House Republicans set a conference today to mobilize party support behind the Ruml plan to achieve pay-as-you-go for income tax payers by skipping a tax year.

Meanwhile, Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the ways and means committee, leading Democratic opponent of any tax abatement, told newspapermen that support behind the Ruml plan is waning as the people begin to understand it.

With President Roosevelt opposed to the Ruml plan and the Democratic leadership aligned behind the ways and means committee bill making pay-as-you-go optional for any taxpayer who elects to pay off two years taxes within one year, Speaker Rayburn tentatively set Wednesday for the start of the storm battle on the house floor.

East May Drive For Fun But Rations Are Sliced in Half; Price Boost Is Anticipated

By KENNETH L. DIXON

Washington, March 18.—(P)—Starting today, eastern motorists can drive for fun again, as far as their gasoline will take them—but for the luckless "A" bookholders, at least, that won't be very far.

And what gas they get may cost them more.

Dealer pleas for price increases, driver pleas for more coupons and official pleas for revival of car-sharing plans chorused today in the wake of yesterday's Office of Price Administration order cutting the "A" bookholder's weekly ration roughly from about 3 to 1½ gallons and lifting the pleasure driving ban.

The same day the order—applying only to the east coast—is effective, a group of independent retail gasoline dealers from eastern cities is expected to ask OPA for an increase in the price ceiling. A spokesman for the Washington dealers said he planned to call them together, adding that the curtailed ration would trim sales volume farther and force many small dealers out of business unless the margin is increased.

Some speculation was aroused by the wording of the OPA announcement which said merely that the fifth period "A" coupons would be valid for four months instead of two.

If the coupons must last the entire four months, as the order was generally interpreted, it would effect a 50 per cent slash in the "A" bookholder's ration. However, the OPA announcement set no specific expiration date for the coupons, giving rise to conjecture as to whether officials expected the supply situation to ease somewhat within the four months.

However, in the absence of any official statement to that effect, an immediate run on ration boards for supplementary coupons was predicted.

Meanwhile, a Tokyo broadcast quoted Premier Hideki Tojo as warning Japan that "the war situation is becoming more serious."

A confession underlined by Secretary Knox's statement in New York last night that Japan has lost 1,857,000 tons of shipping, or one-third of her tonnage at the beginning of the war.

"The journey to victory is just begun," Knox said. "We have reached the point where the conduct of this struggle will be, from now on, of our own choosing. The initiative is ours."

While Japanese displayed signs of worry over the trend of the war, Allied warplanes continued to blast at the westward movement of Japanese troops and supplies to the islands above Australia, attacking three enemy coastal vessels of western Dutch New Guinea.

At the same time, Gen. MacArthur revealed the discovery of an elaborate Japanese encampment 50 miles above Allied-captured Buna, New Guinea, which was apparent (Turn to Page Nine)

Adoption Of War Service Law Is Urged

Washington, March 18.—(P)—Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson appealed today for prompt enactment of a civilian service draft law to "mitigate the loss of life on the fighting front" and permit "a more equitable distribution of burdens" at home.

Adoption of the Austin-Wadsworth bill to draft men and women into war production jobs, he told the senate military committee, will be "bad news in Berlin and Tokyo" and good news to our allies.

Describing the war as "a fight for existence which is far from won," Patterson said the United States is the only one of the principal belligerents without a system of universal war service.

"If it is democratic to tap a man on the shoulder and send him to fight the Japs in a New Guinea jungle," he asked, "can it be undemocratic to select a man or a woman to load shells, work on an airplane or stay on a farm?"

As congressional efforts to deal with growing manpower problems sent to the house a senate-approved bill deferring essential farm workers from bearing arms, sponsors of the Austin-Wadsworth national service proposal indicated a general overhauling is in prospect.

Meanwhile talk of limiting the size of the armed forces was renewed by Senator Nye (R-ND) who said he and two colleagues would offer legislation to that end soon.

SOVIET LINES REPORTED TO BE HOLDING

Berlin Radio Declares Germans on Offensive Along Sector From Kursk To Kharkov

CASUALTIES HEAVY

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, March 18.—(AP)—A titanic tank struggle, with a German air umbrella of Junkers dive bombers met by hurrying Soviet Stormoviks trying to knock out the German armor, was being waged today in the northern Donets river valley, but the Russians reported their lines refused to give before the masses of tanks hurled against them.

(The German high command, in a communique broadcast by the Berlin radio and recorded by the Associated Press, said the Germans were on the offensive throughout the sector from Kharkov to Kursk, inflicting "severe heavy losses" on the Russians.)

Far northwest of Kharkov, in the area west of Sevsk, and along a battle line east of Kharkov and extending down into the Donets basin the Germans were said to be concentrating their reserves and tanks against narrow sectors, striving violently to break through toward cities and towns still held by the Russians.

On the central battlefield, the Russians were reported swooping down upon scores of settlements south of Bely and were said to be shaping a wide attack on a stretch of the Vyazma-Smolensk railway in the drive to fashion a pincers about the key base at Smolensk.

Much of the fighting was said to be waged on the Dnieper river headwaters.

On the northwestern front Marshal Timoshenko's men continued their offensive directed at Staraya Russa, Soviet advisers said.

A dispatch to Red Star, the Red army newspaper, declared that in sharp fighting on the western bank of the northern Donets the Russians had recaptured two unidentified towns which the Germans then vainly attempted to win back with a mass tank attack.

Trying to gain the upper hand across the Russian line, the dispatch said, the Germans were sending Junkers 87's and 88's, accompanied by fighter planes, into (Turn to Page Nine)

Miners' Offer Is Rejected

New York, March 18.—(P)—A United Mine Workers official said today that southern soft coal mine operators at a closed meeting rejected a union demand that miners be paid from time of entry into a mine until time of departure.

John O'Leary of Pittsburgh, UMW vice president, said the owners flatly rejected the proposal. The new title suggested for the council would be in line with actions already taken by the federal government and other bodies on similar lines and with like intent.

Dr. Hutchison said apportion of the new designation would not entail any additional expense upon the commonwealth. The thousands of air raid wardens, auxiliary policemen and firemen and other classes of the civilian volunteer force would continue to wear present arm bands and use apparatus bearing the "CD" insignia.

It was said that John L. Lewis, UMW president who made the demands, would not attend today's conference because of a cold.

State Defense Council May Take More Militant Title

Harrisburg, March 18.—(P)—The State Defense Council is considering changing its name to the Council of Civilian Warfare or some similar title indicative of a war offensive spirit.

The matter has been on the council docket for sometime without any action being taken. A change would require legislative action.

Council Director Dr. Ralph C. Hutchison said that "we feel something must be done to arouse the people of Pennsylvania to a more militant and serious attitude towards the war."

Harold Zimmerman wishes his friends in Warren to know the reason for the stand he has taken, and the statement below, which was read to the Court at Erie, will clear up some of the conflicting ideas prevalent:

All my life I have been associated with Jehovah's Witnesses and have learned the commandments given in God's Word to His servants or witnesses concerning what one must do in order to carry out the commission which He has given to do. I have always looked forward to the time when I would become a witness for His Name, Isaiah 61, verses 1 and 2, explains the commission given to all who would witness for Jehovah God: "The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek . . . to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all that mourn."

This statement applies to all Christians today who pray the prayer that our Lord taught us to pray: "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven." However, Jesus said that His Kingdom is not of this world, showing there is a definite difference between those faithful Christians who preach the Gospel and the people of the world. The Roman Empire which was in power at the time of Christ fought against and persecuted the Christians in that day, proving that those public officials were not in favor of Jehovah God and His Kingdom. Further proof to show that these rulers were fighting against God can be shown by the attempt of the Devil to tempt Jesus when he took him into a high mountain and offered Him all the Kingdoms of this world if He would but bow down and worship him. The Christians of that day kept themselves "unspotted from the world" and this is likewise the duty of every person who desires to be a Christian today. The commission given to the disciples then did not apply to the other people who were under the Roman authority and therefore they would be bound to the laws of the Roman Empire. Only those who understand the issue are held responsible in the eyes of the Almighty God. Our Lord stated "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's." When there is a conflict between the laws of the state and the laws of God there is only one decision to be made: "And when Peter and John were brought before the courts, they answered, 'Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken to you more than God, judge ye.'" If one of these disciples having made a covenant with God to do His will, yielded to the influence or demands of any earthly government causing him to break this covenant, he would then be subject to the punishment of everlasting destruction at the hands of the great Creator. Therefore, he said: "Fear not them which kill the body but cannot kill the soul, but rather fear Him who is able to kill both the body and soul in hell."

The fact when enrolling at college I asked to be excused from military training shows that I at that time wanted it clearly understood that I did not want to take any part in any of the political, religious, or commercial elements of the world, which Jehovah long foretold would be destroyed along with Satan, the devil and all who yield to his wicked ways. I now realize that I cannot take the stand of a conscientious objector, because I am not a pacifist and have never claimed to be. The true Christian today must fight for the New World, even with his life if necessary. Jehovah's Witnesses are a peace loving people like any other persons who would like to see an end of all totalitarian rule and wickedness. At Matthew 24:14, the Lord says: "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world as a witness unto all nations, and then shall the end come." The end of what? The end of all wickedness, greed, and hate. Therefore, before man can ever receive the blessings for which all sincere persons are striving, this kingdom message must be preached, and Jehovah's Witnesses have been anointed by the Almighty God, Jehovah, to do this preaching. For those who do not see this issue and are not commissioned to do this work, it is clearly seen that their duty lies with the request of their country. Jehovah's servants keep themselves unspotted from the world in every country in the world, showing that they are entirely neutral in the present world conflict and have the best interests of the whole world at heart. We sincerely feel that we can do far more good for all sincere people in the earth by proclaiming this kingdom message, thereby giving all righteous persons an opportunity for receiving everlasting blessings in the New World.

The war and its issues have brought my stand to an early climax making my decision seem very sudden. However, from the facts that I have given the court and the results of the investigation conducted by the F. B. I., it is evident that I am sincerely and conscientiously doing the only thing that I can do in fulfillment of my covenant to Jehovah.

If I had been a student minister or an ordained minister of a religious organization, my draft board would have given a IV-D classification. But, because I am one of Jehovah's witnesses and have not been ordained according to the traditions of men, I was denied the proper classification.

The first settlers in America were Christians fleeing from governments where they were compelled to disobey God's commandments because of the dictatorial rule. Therefore, no law of man in any way can be enforced if it is contrary to God's will. Jehovah's witnesses do not make ordinances for themselves, but govern their conduct entirely according to the statements made in God's Word, the Holy Bible. To support this the noted law authority Blackstone states: "No human laws are of any validity if contrary to this (the divine law)—to be found only in the Holy Scripture—No human laws should be suffered to contradict these."

In conclusion I would like to make a pledge that will show clearly the stand which the servants of God take: "I have pledged my unequalled allegiance and devotion to Jehovah, the Almighty God, and to His Kingdom, for which Jesus commands all Christians to pray. I respect the flag of the United States and acknowledge it as a symbol of freedom and justice to all. I pledge allegiance and obedience to all the laws of the United States that are consistent with God's law and set forth in the Bible."

Sincerely,
HAROLD L. ZIMMERMAN.

Kiwanians Heard Story Of Cobham's

Addressing Kiwanians at their weekly luncheon-meeting at the Hotel Carver Wednesday noon, Attorney J. H. Alexander related for them the story of the Henry Cobham family and many facts concerning Cobham Castle.

The family's many court sessions were developed in chronological order and given in interesting detail, much of the information being totally unfamiliar to the club members and of great interest.

President H. W. Ledebur announced that H. T. Flowers had been appointed to work on the bulletin committee to succeed Dr. J. A. Davidson, who now holds a military membership and expects to be called soon to serve as an army chaplain.

P. E. Nelson announced next week's program attraction would feature the new Boy Scout executive, Chester Seymour, who will talk on the local work of that organization.

Guests at yesterday's session were Lt. Sherwood Miller, of Boise, Idaho; Pvt. Lewis L. Sader, furloughing in North Warren, and Nelson B. Woodward, of the Jamestown, N. Y., club.

SOLDIERS TO FARM
Indiantown Cap, March 18.—(P.)—Enlisted men at Indiantown Gap military reservation soon will be dividing their time between the plowshare and the sword. Each complement of men at the reservation is planning to grow its own victory garden according to Col. Carlin Stokely, post commandant.

Dr. Henry Woodward introduced rice into America about 1680.

TIMES TOPICS

MUST REGISTER
Operators of all commercial vehicles must register for the second quarter all next week with the County Register Board at Room 201 Warren National Bank building. When going to register all are reminded that they must have their certificates of war necessity with them.

PERMIT IS APPROVED
Approval has been given at Washington, D. C., for the new fourth ward fire station. The application was filed several weeks ago as it is desired to get the building erected as soon as possible so that Engine Co. No. 3 can be moved from the temporary quarters it now occupies. The new structure will be one story in height and will be made as modern as a fire station is possible. Plans have been prepared by Fire Chief D. G. Kropf and Borough Engineer Calvin Barwis. Work is expected to get under way as soon as possible.

TO DISCUSS RULING
A meeting of tremendous importance to meat dealers, who do their own butchering and to farmers who dress and sell meat will be held in the small court room at the Court House next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. It is called by W. L. Armitage, chairman of the county USDA board, and has to do with the licensing of dealers who do their own slaughtering. In efforts to break up black markets Sec. Wickard is requiring permits for slaughterers. The order will be discussed and an opportunity given for all in attendance to apply for and receive permits so they will be eligible to operate their business after March 31. The Times-Mirror is in receipt of a complete notice on this meeting but it is so lengthy it cannot be published in its entirety.

Moose Lodge Presents City With Life Saving Machines

At the regular monthly meeting of Warren Lodge No. 109 Loyal Order of Moose held last evening in the Moose building it was decided to purchase two of the famous E and J Resuscitators and present them to the city. One will be placed at the Warren General Hospital and one will be placed at the Central Fire Station.

The E and J Resuscitator is the latest appliance for use in drowning, asphyxia, carbon monoxide poisoning, suspended animation, etc. It is in reality three machines in one in that it is a resuscitator, aspirator and inhalator and merely turning of a lever converts it into the machine necessary for the proper treatment of a case desiring such special treatment.

The machines are at the Central Fire station where all interested may call and the use of the machine will be demonstrated.

In the use of the machine it is almost automatic and after placing the mouth piece in place the machine adjusts itself to the breathing of any size lung whether it be adult or new born infant. The breathing is carried forward until natural breathing starts. In the use of the passages being clogged with mucus the machine automatically gives one of this fact and a tube is inserted which draws from the passages such material and allows the oxygen to pass into the lungs.

The machine is particularly adaptable for hospital use in that it can be used on new born infants and many lives will undoubtedly be saved by its use for this purpose. Pregnant women can also be treated with this machine as its use does not cause any strain.

At Jamestown one of the machines has been in use by the fire department there since the first of the year and of fourteen cases on which the appliance was used only one has been lost. This is an admirable record and one which shows the vast possibilities of the machine. It is also said to be useful in the treatment for heart attacks.

By the installation of the resuscitator at the Central Fire Station the inhalator now kept at the Central Fire Station can be placed on the emergency truck of the fire department and will be available for use with great speed.

The generous gift from the Warren Lodge of Moose is greatly appreciated by the hospital and fire department as it will add greatly to the life saving ability of both places. Residents of Warren certainly owe a debt of gratitude to the Loyal Order of Moose for the splendid gift.

Vocational Agriculture Boys Produce Food For Victory

In the rural high schools of Warren and Forest counties 122 boys taking Vocational Agriculture completed 168 projects. These projects were beef cattle, bees, corn, dairy calves, dairy records, farm accounts, trees, small fruits, garden and truck, home improvement, potatoes, poultry, small grains and swine. The grand total of labor income for these projects which the boys produced is $7,265.40. This is indeed a very good showing. These projects are farm jobs which the boys take as practical applications of the class room study of the various jobs. Their motto is "learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, and living to serve." If it were not for the vocational agriculture in these high schools it is very probable that these farm products would not have been produced, at least in such volume.

The production figures are as follows: 1250 lbs. of beef, 100 lbs. of comb honey, 1455 bushels of ear corn, 21 tons of stover, 110 tons of ensilage, 32 heifers, 4500 forest seedlings, 36 quarts of berries, 8533 bushels of potatoes, 7423 lbs. of poultry meat, 1684 pullets, 2798 dozens of eggs, 114 lbs. of wool, 270 lbs. of mutton, 2 lambs, 489 bushels of oats, 15 tons of soybeans, 151 tons of oat straw, 4 sows, 8320 lbs. of pork, 40 little pigs.

In addition to these 11 boys improved their homes and farms in what we call a home improvement project.

In addition to the Vocational Agriculture work in the high schools the farm machinery repair classes for adult farmers are going strong in the following centers: Columbus, Lottsville, Sugar Grove, Youngsville, Tionesta, Grand Valley. Although no official figures have been released as to the actual number of farm machines which have been repaired in each class the farmers are bringing in and fixing up almost anything from tractors and trucks, cultivator disks, harrows, drills, lime sowers, one-horse cultivators, plows, etc. Also they are making various things such as: new hoppers for their potato planters, wagon boxes, wagons, etc. This is accomplished by farmers bringing in their own machines and repairing them, the only cost being parts which have to be put on the machines.

The class at Grand Valley will begin operations formally on Monday, March 15. There has been a change in time of meeting and instructor. The farmers will meet on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings from 9:30 to 12:30. These meetings will run for four hours ending April 9. The instructor will be A. E. Osborn. Farmers in the Grand Valley Section who have machines to be repaired may bring them in and work on them during these hours. Even though they have no machines to be repaired if they would like to come and participate in the class and learn of the various adjustments and methods used in making these repairs they are very welcome. In all these classes we can do electric welding and in five of the classes we can do acetylene welding for repair only however.

Missing Man Hangs Self From A Tree

Austrian Woodsman Chooses Secluded Spot To Take Own Life

DESPONDENCY CAUSE

Hanging about ten feet from the ground from a rope tied on a small limb in a hemlock tree in Meade township about two miles from Tiona the body of an Austrian woodsman known to his associates as Tony Krulic, 66 years old, was found by fellow workers about five o'clock Wednesday evening. Men in the camp operated by Theaasa Makiar for the Mayburg Chemical Co., informed investigating officers that Krulic was quite despondent when he disappeared Tuesday, March 9. They had been searching for him almost daily since that time and had about decided that he had left for parts unknown when the discovery was made by Tony Smith yesterday.

Coroner Ed Lowrey and Deputy Sheriff L. E. Linder who investigated, were joined at the scene by Chief of Police Sanford Secor and Undertaker Francis Borden of Sheffield. There was no doubt that the man had committed suicide by hanging and an inquest was deemed unnecessary. The body was removed to the Borden funeral home in Sheffield where services will be held at a time to be announced later.

Krulic, whose social security card showed that he also went under the name of Tony Krutchic, had chosen one of the most desolate spots in the vicinity to take his life. The tree was located along a small stream that empties into Six Mile Run, and it was necessary for him to climb at least fifty feet to attach the small piece of clothes line with two half hitches, before he fastened the other end around his neck with a slip noose. It was apparent that he was compelled to bend limbs back against each other to reach the particular spot where he tied the rope. The spot was so secluded that it was shaded most of the time and the body was frozen stiff.

Through records at the Federal Social Security office at Erie it was learned that he was drawing a small pension, which evidently was not sufficient to meet his needs. He was born in Austria June 13, 1877, and according to the information given upon registration he had not been naturalized. He is said to have a wife and daughter in the old country, but had informed friends he had not heard from them in ten years.

He had operated a grocery store in the nearby town for thirty years, was active in the development of the cottage park and other undertakings at Columbus, retiring more than ten years ago but continuing his residence there until quite recently. Mr. Simpson was active in the Masonic fraternity throughout the years, holding the 32nd degree and being affiliated with the Coudersport Consistory. ## Trains that get the "breaks"

Troop Trains. Because a million troops a month must be moved—and, in addition, the arms and ammunition they need.

Coal Trains. Because coal is the nation's greatest single source of heat, light, power—we can't win the war without it.

Once great passenger trains had the right-of-way.

And they still again!

But right now there is a war to be won. So trains vital to the war effort get priority.

And we don't think there is a single American who would have it otherwise.

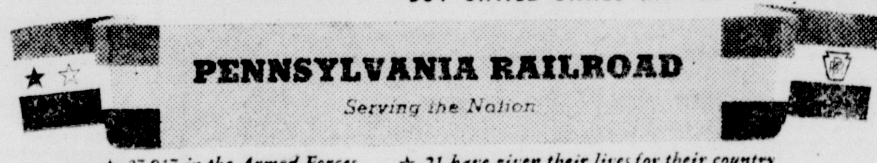

In fact, evidence of that grows daily. If their train is late, business men take it as something that can't be helped. They know why.

And so with any travel inconvenience that may be encountered. Demand for equipment is now so great that on arriving at terminals cars must be put right back into service, so you may find them not quite so spic and span as we would like. Housekeeping facilities are adequate but there's not always time.

But Americans are taking all this like good soldiers. For they know this is a war of movement, and that movement begins right here—in America.

Food Trains. Because food for our fighting men—for our allies—and for our "home front" is vital to victory.

Oil Trains. Because they must replace tankers, to serve homes, cars, factories—and to quicken overseas oil shipments.

Rotarians And Ladies To Hear Hero

Col. Carlos P. Romulo, who will lecture at the Woman's Club Friday evening on the topic "The Last Man Off Bataan", will be honored guest for the six o'clock supper to be held at the clubhouse the same evening by the Rotary Club to mark its annual Ladies' Night. Afterward, members and their ladies will adjourn to the auditorium to enjoy his address.

John G. Rossman, local superintendent of schools and member of the committee on arrangements, will preside for the dinner program, which will include special musical selections by an instrumental trio of high school students.

A former vice president of Rotary International, Col. Romulo has proved a popular speaker at organization conventions, one of which was held in Cleveland, O.

Because of tomorrow night's party for the ladies, there will be no luncheon meeting of the Rotary group on Monday, it is stated.

Good Progress Being Made By Firing School

The students at the Small Arms Firing School, conducted by the Warren Rifle Club and the Cornplanter Gun Club, took to the range and fired their first string of prone shooting last night at the Warren Armory range in the best military manner. This was followed by shooting in the sitting position with sling adjustment. As the students were concentrating on small groups and not on high scores, the results showed that they were all making excellent progress.

Still confronting the shooters is the more difficult kneeling and off-hand positions which will be given at the next session. Quite a few improvements have been noted and several of the students have developed into excellent riflemen.

Owing to several of the students being inducted soon, it was decided to hold an extra session for this group on Friday night of this week. This will enable them to complete their basic training before they depart for their induction centers.

Beginning next Monday night the instructors will start training the Pennsylvania Reserve Defense Corps. Owing to the number of men it will be necessary to again hold two classes each Monday, the first class beginning at seven o'clock and the second class beginning at nine o'clock. Lieutenant Dickinson has stated that their men will have to fire the qualification course and the completion of the small arms training course will enable them to do this and receive their qualifications medals and attendance certificates.

The good work being done by the instructors of both clubs in training these men and the selection is most commendable. All the instructors are giving generously of their time and the training they have received in past years is now proving most valuable.

Pennsy Employees Urged to Garden

More than 160,000 Pennsylvania Railroad employees are being urged to plant "Victory Gardens" of their own, or to cooperate in community planting efforts with their neighbors, through the medium of a special pamphlet prepared by the railroad and distributed to every employee in cooperation with the Department of Agriculture and the Office of Civilian Defense.

The pamphlet sets up a sample home garden plan for a plot 50 by 30 feet. Dates for planting various vegetables, distance between rows, the depth seeds should be planted, the distance between plants, and other pertinent information is listed. The sample garden is planned to supply the average family of four with enough of a wide variety of vegetables for the entire summer.

Railroad men and women are urged to employ some of their spare time to "grow vegetables for victory" in order to release much previous food for the armed forces.

Private hospitals in Great Britain receive government grants for special services, such as the treatment of certain types of disease.

Young Men Offered College Course By Army and Navy

High School officials have received a letter by which the Army offers to young men who can qualify a course of college training. The offer was made by the Navy College Training Program (V-12). It is desired to extend the arrangements outlined in that communication so as to provide for joint Army-Navy needs.

You have received previously a letter, dated March 2, 1943, requesting your assistance in administering a qualifying test for the Navy College Training Program (V-12). It is desired to extend the arrangements outlined in that communication so as to provide for joint Army-Navy needs.

The new plan provides for the examination of all male students who have attained their 17th and have not reached their 22nd birthdays by July 1, 1943, and who have graduated or are expected to graduate from secondary schools prior to that date. It is designed to provide information useful to the Armed Forces in—

(a) selecting students for college training under the Army

Specialized Training Program, (b) classifying all others in respect to relative trainability.

The purpose of the Army Specialized Training Program is to train, at the collegiate level, men in technical and professional skills required by the Army. Engineers of all types, doctors, psychologists, linguists, physicists, mathematicians and students of foreign areas are needed in large numbers, and the Army has established this program in those colleges and universities where such training can best be given.

The eligibility of an individual for the Army Specialized Training Program is not fully established until he has successfully completed the normal twelve or thirteen weeks of basic military training immediately following his induction into the Army. Success on the proposed test, however, will provide the candidate with a certificate of qualification which, upon presentation at the time of voluntary or regular induction, will assure his assignment to a Replacement Training Center as a potential Army Specialized Training Program trainee. If it is then determined that he is potential officer candidate material, he will be assigned to an Army Specialized Training Unit as an enlisted man on active duty, receiving the pay of a private seventh grade, to pursue a curriculum of study for which he has shown himself qualified. Individual choice of curriculum will be given serious consideration, although the Army will assign each candidate to the curriculum for which his aptitudes indicate him best suited.

Those students who prefer the Navy program should fill out the "Admission and Identification Form for Navy College Training Program Test (V-12)". Those who prefer the Army program should fill out the "Admission and Identification Form for the Army College Training Program Test (A-12)". Those who have no preference may use either card, noting that they have no preference. In either case, the card properly filled out should be presented by the candidate to the supervisor at the time of the test, 9 a. m. on April 2, 1943.

All qualifications previously announced for acceptance into the Navy College Training Program (V-12) continue to apply. For the Army all male applicants in the following groups are eligible to take the test as Army candidates:

(a) High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but have not reached their 22nd birthdays by July 1, 1943, regardless of whether they are now attending college.

(b) High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, 1943, provided they will have attained their 17th, but have not reached their 22nd birthday by that date.

(c) Students who will have attained their 17th but have not reached their 22nd birthdays by July 1, 1943, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are now continuing their education in an accredited college or university.

To be eligible for Officer Candidate School or the Army Specialized Training Program, a man must be normally and physically qualified, and must evidence potential officer qualifications, including appearance and scholarship records.

Men now enlisted in any branch of the armed services are not eligible to take this test.

The qualifying test will be given on April 2, 1943, at all high schools and colleges in the United States at which there are applicants.

Tests will be given at Warren High School April 2, at 9:00 a. m. Application forms can be obtained from the principal. Those interested should register by March 22.

GROW YOUR OWN AND LIKE IT

Winning the war is becoming a very personal matter. The cost of victory we find, is not just a matter affecting the pocketbook. It is related, also, to things we wear and what we eat.

It is a fairly simple matter to curb our wanderings. Three pair of shoes, with regular trips to the repair shop, can be made to do us a year. Many say they can get along with one pair. But eating is a pretty persistent habit.

It's up to us now to get out and dig. The people of Britain did. Cabbage grew in the heart of London. Lettuce sprouted on the tops of bomb shelters. Hands that swung golf clubs reached to pick up the hoe. Nimble fingers that danced over typewriter keys took on the task of weeding.

Looks like it will mean the same here. Remember, food is ammunition. Plan now to grow it this summer.

FOR POSTAL WORKERS

The House of Representatives has voted to boost the pay of postal workers for the first time in 18 years. A Senate committee has reported favorably on a similar measure. The House bill would give flat increases of $300 a year to postal service employees who receive straight salaries. For part-time workers the increase would be 15 per cent of the hourly rate up to the $300 limit. Under the handicap of reduced personnel, due to service in the armed forces, and a much greater volume of mail, the postal workers have been carrying on. The increase the pending bills would provide is deserved.

The Office of Price Administration has lifted the ban on pleasure driving in eastern states but that won't alter the situation much for a large percentage of motorists never observed it anyway. However, under the new order rationing for those having "A" cards is halved, which will permit the average motorist to drive about twenty miles a week—and that won't be fun for anyone owning a car.

Workers in the Red Cross War Fund campaign are urged to make a special effort to attend the report meeting at 7:15 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. It's important that all solicitors be prepared to submit reports at this time.

St. Patrick's Day parades were called off around the country. No marching for the green, but plenty of it for the Red, White and Blue!

Fashion note: To be in style in Warren right now one must have dangling from the coat lapel one of those little round cards bearing a Red Cross on each side!

Spring's here! Men and boys have been observed along the banks of the creek and river fishing for suckers.

LENTEN SERMONETTE

REV. WILLIAM G. WOODWARD, B. D.
First Church of the United Brethren in Christ

"Transformation and Fellowship."
"Thou art Simon . . . thou shalt be called Cephas . . . A stone."—John 1:42

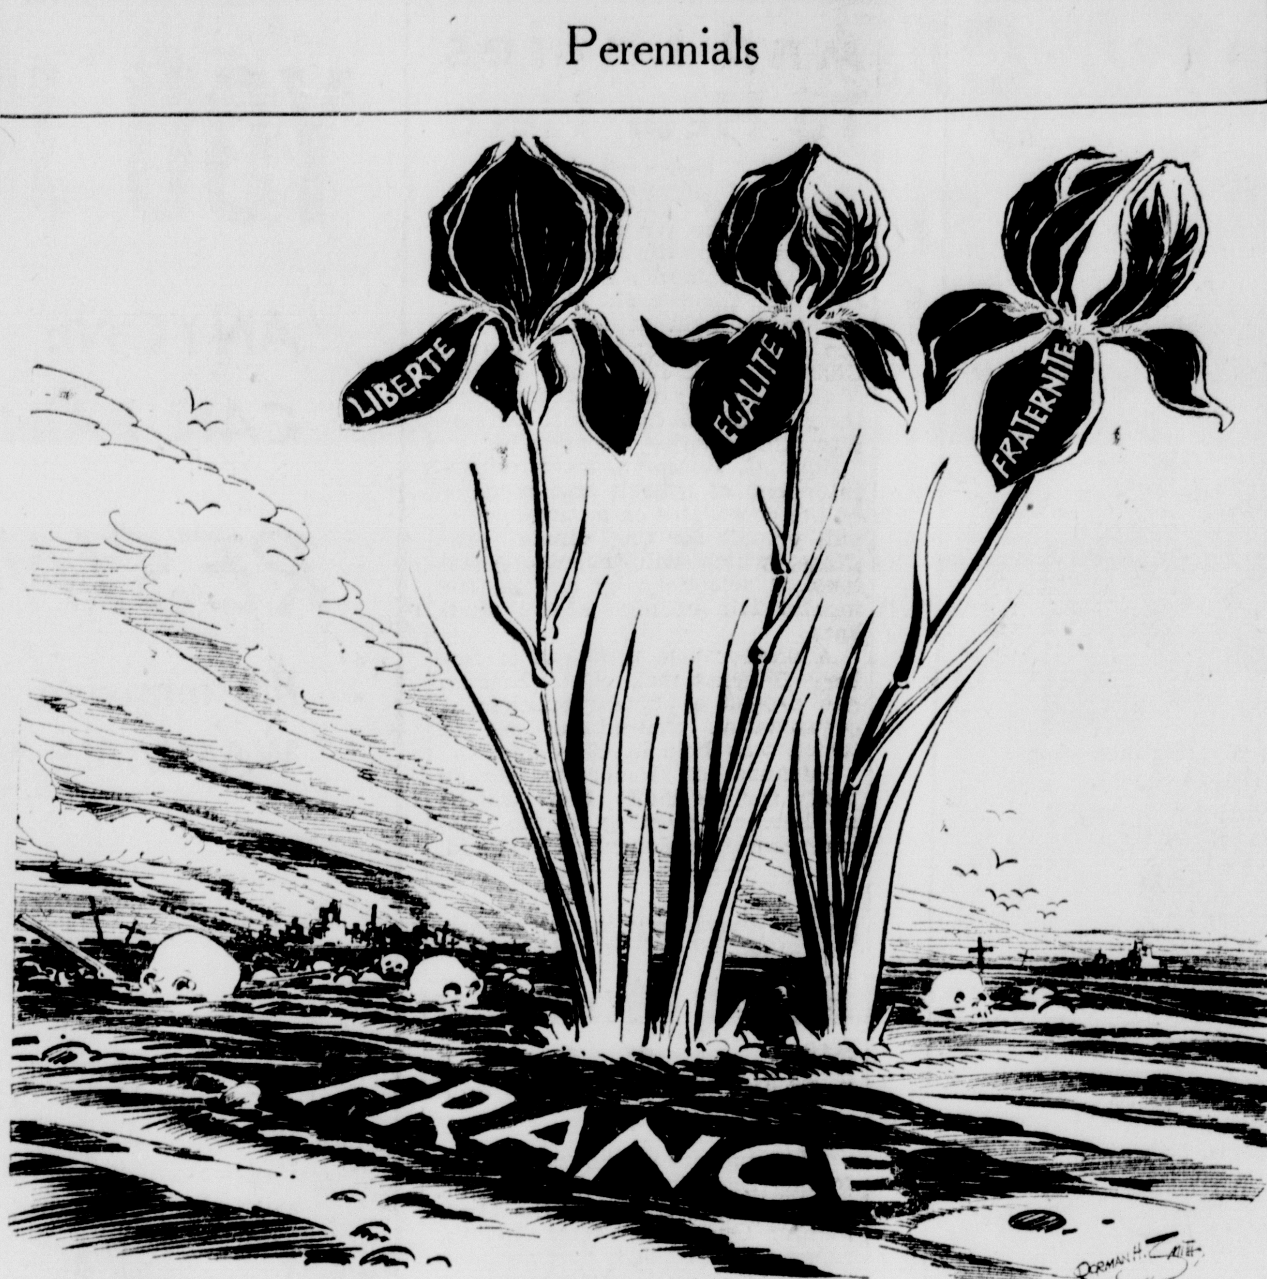

Jesus addressed these words to Simon on the occasion of their first meeting. The Master saw Simon as he was, a rough, rude fisherman; impetuous, self-confident, vain, and therefore weak and unstable. But He also saw him with all his possibilities and what he would become under the inspiration, instruction of, and fellowship with Jesus; when the friendship of the Savior had warmed his heart and enriched his life, and had given him wisdom and started his holy aspirations in his soul. "Thou shalt be called Peter—a stone." Think what Peter is today in history, in influence upon the countless millions of lives that have been blessed through him—all this because he came to Jesus, and He became his friend.

Many of us know friendships, human friendships that have been benedictions, inspirations, a comfort and strength in the days that follow. Life has become easier, and grief not so hard to bear in its loneliness and bitterness. The possibilities which Jesus sees in our lives and which He is able to make a fact to us should give life new meaning for us. "Thou shalt be Peter!" Jesus sees us first as we are, with all our imperfections, our blemishes and blots. But we are not always to be thus; something glorious is before us. Sometimes we are alarmed by the disappointments, the sufferings, the sorrows that we have to endure, but the experiences of the "daily round, the common task" contain lessons which, if we learn them, will help to bring out in us the beauty and the glory of the perfected life. Goethe tells of a wonderful lamp which, when placed in a fisherman's hut, changed all within it to beauty and convenience. So the Gospel of Christ, when it enters heart or a home, glorifies all its relationships and duties. It makes strength gentle, intellect careful, will glorious, and affection love. It sanctifies all, trials and blessings.

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.—Exodus 20:7.

Vow me no vows.—Beaumont and Fletcher.

RATIONING has dumped a load of new problems in Washington, where problems already come in bunches, like bananas.

Rep. Wright Patman's small business committee gets an increased volume of protests from food retailers. They complain: (1) that rationing is driving them out of business; (2) that larger retailers are favored under rationing; (3) that rationing "paperwork" is driving them nuts and bankrupt, in that order.

The committee estimates that rationed canned goods constitute one-quarter of the normal sales volume of a small grocer. High point values are wakening the stuffing out of this revenue.

Deliveries are a headache under rationing. Delivery service is the best competitive advantage the independent store has over the cash-and-carry chains. A delivery boy formerly could have charged goods without a long stop. Now he must collect ration "chips" every trip. It runs up costs and makes new time demands on scarce help.

Small Town Grocers Hit

Wholesalers, with an eye on their tires and costs, tend to deliver to the retailers closest to their warehouses. Small town grocers are howling that they can't get goods.

Patman's committee has the ration woes of the smaller merchant under study. No basic remedial policy has been advanced. In all likelihood, there will be further action to cut down book-keeping reports, and to ease restrictions on wholesalers to permit wider deliveries. It's hoped that increased sales of fresh vegetables will replace the lost canned goods revenues.

New Transportation Problem

This substitution of fresh for canned goods is building up another cross-fingers-and-hope-for-the-best situation. Office of De-lense Transportation expects a "tight" in refrigerator cars that may be serious.

Already there's the beginning of a squeeze in cars to transport citrus fruit from Florida to replace high-point tomato juice. The big squeeze is due for June. Millions of city housewives plan to eat vegetables this year. That means that abnormally large shipments of canning stocks must move in refrigerator cars to urban centers before they spoil. (Ordinarily they're commercially canned close to production centers and move to market through the year in ordinary boxcars.)

There are only 143,000 "reefers" (as railroad men call refrigerator cars) on U. S. railroads, a decline of 30,000 since 1928. WPB hasn't authorized construction of any more. ODT plans to restrict "reefer" shipments to tender produce, and ship the stuff that stands up better in ventilated, ordinary boxcars. Even so, it's doubtful if the available refrigerator cars can keep up with urban home-canning needs.

Glass Jars Plentiful

Other canning supplies look safe. There'll be plenty of glass jars. Glass is one of the few plentiful industrial materials. Production of rubber jar rings will be authorized to meet demands. Pressure cookers are scarce, but kettles will do.

Farmers who sell produce direct to consumers must collect ration coupons, obey retail price laws, and make retailers' reports. This applies to fresh vegetables, dried produce or farm-canned edibles. It applies now to pork sold on the farm and will be extended when general meat rationing is instituted.

That's the way the "initiation" period of food rationing stacks up. There's no prospect of eased rationing restrictions. Rationing is here to stay through the war, and will be extended. A good home garden and plenty of home-canning are "musts" on the 1943 list for the prudent.

Hollywood Gossip

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Here's the tale of a producer with sledgehammer finesse. His studio wanted a certain actor to play opposite Betty Grable in "Sweet Rosie O'Grady" but the producer wanted another. He told the studio: "I'll talk to your man and sell him on the part."

They met at lunch—the producer and the actor—he didn't want.

"I've seen a couple of your pictures," the producer began, his selling job, "and I didn't like them. I don't like your personality. Very objectionable."

"That," said the startled actor, "might have been the character." "Maybe," said the other coldly. "Now about this picture. Your forte is singing and dancing. Well, in this picture Betty Grable does all the singing and dancing."

The luncheon didn't last long. The studio's man was "sold" out of the role. It goes to Robert Young. Sometimes Hollywood is a very lovely place. . . .

ALONG the airways: "WAVES," defined Charlie McCarthy, "are sailors who go down to the sea in ships." . . . Red Skelton: "My tires are worn so thin the air is showing!" . . . McCarthy to Carmen Miranda: "Say, Carmen, where's that Brazilian hat you usually wear—the one with all the stuff on it?" Carmen: "Well, pineapple is hard to get now." . . .

The OWI wants the movies' Nazis painted blackest black, so actor Kurt Kreuger died several times for a scene with Humphrey Bogart in "Somewhere in Sahara." After several rehearsals, Kreuger went down with his arrogance changing to whining, desperate pleading and fear. Zoltan Korda, the director, complimented him: "You died beautifully. When you closed your eyes, you hadn't a friend in the world!" . . .

FOR all that, the strongest anti-Nazi film yet is "The Moon Is Down," in which the Nazi characters, while never admirable, are still projected in shades of black-and-white. They are people, and believable people.

"The Moon Is Down" is the Joan Steinbeck work for which 20th Century-Fox paid a then record price of $300,000, only to have the stage version collapse within days after the movie sale. This was an embarrassing development, but Producer Kunally Johnson, who wrote the screen play, said he was not dismayed. Neither, apparently, was Director Irving Pichel.

Between them and a cast lacking in "big names" but rich in acting talent, they have turned out the clearest, most dramatically absorbing statement of what this war is about.

Hitler and gang would have nightmares over this picture, as they must be having over the country whose heroism is detailed—Norway. It says, in the war story of one small village, that freedom may be defeated but cannot be conquered, and it proves its theme with such mounting dramatic force, with such wealth of incident, that its climax is like thunder.

Seats Are Available For Lecture

Indications point to a large audience tomorrow night when the Y. M. C. A. Lecture-Forum will feature Col. Carlos P. Romulo, Philippine aide-de-camp to General Douglas MacArthur, whose topic will be "The Last Man Off Bataan." The lecture will start at 8 p. m. and will be held in the Women's Club auditorium.

Preceding the lecture Col. Romulo will be the guest of honor at the Warren Rotary Club at their Ladies Night dinner, at 6 p. m., also at the Woman's Club. Superintendent of Schools John G. Gossman, chairman of the program at the Rotary event, will continue as chairman through the lecture-forum, introducing Col. Romulo.

General Secretary Ralph H. Wagner, of the Y. M. C. A., stated today that there are still a goodly number of seats available for the general public, and for those who wish to avoid the rush and wait at the door tomorrow night, single-admission tickets are on sale at the Y. M. C. A. office.

Robert W. Mackay, chairman of the "Y" forum committee, declared today: "I hope the people of Warren realize what an excellent opportunity is being offered them in this Romulo appearance and lecture. No one more timely, informative and interesting could have been secured for this event. We Americans have a deep interest in what went on in the battle of the Philippines and Corregidor, and here is the man who fought through that battle and who is known to have the ability to tell the story in a thrilling fashion. We'll have reason to be disappointed in the people of Warren if they don't fill the auditorium tomorrow night."

New Regulations Issued On Publication of Men Called For Induction Into Service

BY RALPH E. WALLIS

Harrisburg, March 18.—(AP)—State selective service headquarters today banned publication of names and number of men before actual induction into military service and likewise prohibited publication of names of men rejected by the army.

Col. B. F. Evans, acting state director, explained new orders from national headquarters rescinded previous regulations which allowed publication of quota information prior to the actual induction of men.

The reason for the new order was not announced.

"A list of men accepted and inducted may be furnished by local boards to newspapers for publication but no longer are boards allowed to 'furnish lists of men ordered for induction,' Evans said.

Publication of dates for inducted men to report to reception centers, he added, is not under the jurisdiction of selective service, because the men—once inducted—are in the armed forces and come under military regulations.

New orders to local boards read: "Information concerning quotas or calls shall not be examined by, disclosed, or furnished to anyone except when required in the administration of selective service system. The same applies to information concerning names or total number of men forwarded to the induction station on any call, or during any period of time.

"Upon request of local publication agencies, the local board should, or upon its own motion, the local board may, after the delivery list has been returned from the induction station, prepare a list showing name, address and branch of service of each registrant who was accepted and inducted and may post such list or furnish it to news services, newspapers and radio stations.

"Under no circumstances should such list include registrants rejected at the induction station."

FROST PLAYING TRICKS

Frost leaving the ground has caused pavements on the county highways in many places to heave badly and makes driving somewhat dangerous so that drivers will do well to observe the red flags posted by the highway crews. In the borough Lookout street has been affected and this week a car stuck in the mud there and required some labor to extricate it. This morning in front of the Library theater on Third avenue a pavement heave raised a high spot and a passing car damaged its oil pan spilling a quantity of oil on the pavement.

Chapter 13

JIM glanced at his wristwatch and stifled a yawn.

"If I may be excused, I think I'll turn in," he said. "It's after ten and tomorrow will be a busy day aboard the Sea Bat."

After he had left the room, Landa turned to Don.

"I think I should be going too. You know Maria waits up for me every night now since daddy's gone."

"I'll get the carriage," Don said.

After he had gone, O'Shanessy took his pipe from his lips and through a cloud of blue smoke he said, "Landa girl, you and Don didn't set the wedding day tonight, did you?"

Landa's dark eyes met the old man's steady gaze.

"No, we didn't talk about it at all, tonight."

O'Shanessy started to say more but just then Don came back into the room and announced that the carriage was outside and the old man swallowed his words.

The horses plodded slowly down the hill toward Landa's hacienda.

A faint sea breeze stirred in the papyrus trees along the winding road. Don slipped an arm gently around Landa's shoulders and pulled her close to him. In a voice as soft as the night Don said:

"I'm going to ask you something, dear, that may sound silly but somehow it means a lot to me."

"Yes, Don?" she said.

"I wish you wouldn't go out with Jim Blair on the Sea Bat any more."

SHE could see his dark eyes quickly turn away in embarrassment.

"But—but you certainly couldn't be jealous of him?"

After a moment he said, "No, it isn't that. I think Jim is one of the finest fellows I ever met. I don't really know what it is, only I know I'm miserable when you two are together."

Landa laughed a short, tinkling laugh.

"I did want terribly to try that underwater painting," she said.

"Why don't you go along?"

"I don't want to go. I don't want Jim to think that I don't trust him," Don said sullenly.

The carriage was drawing up under the portico that stood in a pool of dark shadow. Landa and Don kissed and said goodnight.

As Landa walked lightly into her room she saw the dim outline of Maria slumped in her chair and sleeping heavily. At the sound of the door closing the old servant shook herself back to consciousness. As she helped Landa out of her clothes and turned down the bed she smiled slyly. "I betcha beeg wedding will come soon now, eh?"

Landa caught her breath, then whirled on the servant in a burst of hysterical scolding. "Wedding, wedding, wedding! Will you stop talking about it! Can't I have my own wedding when I want it?"

"Si, Senorita!"

Landa turned from the frightened old servant to throw herself onto her bed in convulsions of sobbing. Maria rushed for smelling salts, for cool water. She got her adored mistress into bed while she murmured soothing words.

Many Pleasant Surprises Are Unveiled at Spring Opening Of the Metzger-Wright Store

Last evening Metzger-Wright's was host to its friends at its forty-seventh annual Spring Opening. The store was beautifully decorated in the theme of tulip time with a profusion of tulips throughout the first floor. One expected to see a vast difference this year in the fabrics and accessories, but one was pleasantly surprised to find that little had been changed. The new fabrics were just as bright, just as luscious looking as before. In the jewelry department and accessories, one found more use of plastic than heretofore. One found no bright colors in shoes, but all the shoes, although with lower heels, were very neat and artistically designed.

On second floor one was enthralled over the latest in drapery fabrics and wall paper for one's home. One room especially was arranged for a young girl with green bedspread, chair cover, and tie backs. Other rooms and treatments showed that one still could find plenty of inviting color for one's home.

Of course, many centered their attention on third floor where the very latest in spring fashions in ready to wear and lingerie was on display. The suit, in every detail, the tailored, the dressy, the sport type, was very much in evidence here. Red and blue seemed to be the predominating shades while neutral beige came in for a large share. The hats seemed never lovelier, millinery might choose any style from a flowered bit of a hat to a large felt and still be quite the most stylish person in the Easter Parade.

Fourth floor found many admirers, especially those coming to see the new china and glassware for their homes. Vases of flowers made this floor even more inviting. On this floor Jordan's orchestra played soft music for the entertainment of the guests.

Never has it seemed that the windows of Metzger-Wright's were lovelier, executed by Warren Clark Jr., who is soon leaving for the army, each one was a dream in itself. The two large windows on Liberty street were given over to the formal evening theme, the woman at her most enchanting moment. Spot lights brought out the beauty of the scene, with large paper balloons and serpentine carrying out the thought of the evening's entertainment.

The four windows facing Second Avenue carried out the theme of "Overture for Spring."

Each window had a violin, music stands, and music through the courtesy of the Bickmark Music Shop. On each stand was appropriate music featuring Spring theme. One window which especially stood out was that of a man in a tuxedo dressed from head to toe, even to blue sheer hose, in navy with accents of white and red. The dress was a two piece creation with self embroidery. Printed frocks were used in two of the windows, carrying out the theme of prints for spring. Both were small prints, one with a grey background and one with navy. One noticed that glen plaid was to be used this year and that it could be toned up with black accessories and a touch of red as seen in one of the windows, where a glen plaid suit was used with a red Chesterfield coat, making a striking picture.

The last window was given over to black and white with a two piece dress, the skirt of sheer black and the top of white with black embroidery, a very dressy suit dress, again showing that suits will be worn for all occasions. Mr. Clark deserves much praise for his artistic windows which he has given the people of Warren the pleasure of viewing.

As nine-thirty came and the store closed its doors on its forty-seventh spring opening every one voted this as one of the most successful despite the conditions of the day.

New Owner Of Phillies Dons Uniform

Hershey, Mar. 18 (P)—Millionaire Bill Cox, new owner of the Phillies, became "one of the boys" Wednesday. He donned a uniform with a "No. 2" on the back and worked up a good sweat during an hour and a half drill on a soggy field.

Cox, 33 years old, who stands over 6 feet and weighs around 220, did everything the "boys" did. He jogged up and down the field six times, practiced quick starts, twisted his body in calisthenics, played "catch" with Catcher Mickey Livingston and Outfielder Roy Northey and a "pepper" game with Infielders Danny Murtaugh and Merrill May.

Cox showed he is no stranger to baseball by the easy grace with which he wound up and followed through in pitching to Livingston and the way he scooped up grounders in the pepper game.

"If necessary you could use him," someone said to Manager Buckey Harris. "Yes," replied Harris, "but I hope we never reach that stage."

With the appearance of Northey, Pitcher Walter Beck and Catcher Joe Holden, only four players are missing. First Baseman Babe Dahlgren, Pitchers Johnny Allen and

FEATHERWEIGHTS TO BATTLE THIS EVENING

Boston, Mar. 18 (P)—After holding the NBA version of the featherweight championship for two months to the day, with very slight profit to himself, Jackie Callura, of Hamilton, Ont., will give his predecessor, Jackie Wilson, of Pittsburgh, a promised return bout tonight in a 15-round title affair.

Wilson, who expects an early call from his draft board, is rated evenly with the Canadian on his past performances. The Pittsburgher, reputed to be a much more polished boxer than the title, maintains that he was "very rusty" when Callura dethroned him by a slim margin in Providence in January.

Last Night's Bouts

New Orleans—Bobby Ruffin, 137, New York, knocked out Bobby McIntyre, 134, Detroit (17). Elizabeth, N. J. Buddy Farrell, 151½, Newark, outpointed Marvin Bryant, 155½, Dallas, Texas (6).

Largest sea bird is the albatross, with a wing spread of approximately 12 feet.

Charlie Fuchs and Infielder Bobby Bragan. Harris expects them to report any day.

Golden Glove Champs Turn Eyes To West

New York, Mar. 18 (P)—Eight aggressive young mittmen, having taken care of everything in their own precinct, turned their eyes westward to Chicago today where March 31 they will meet the survivors of the western division of the Golden Glove championships in the annual inter-city bouts.

The eight, representing five cities and including four service men, battled their way to eastern division championships in the finals at Madison Square Garden last night as the Philadelphia contingent walked away with the team title.

The Philadelphia team had six finalists and came up with two individual champions. The New York and Puerto Rico teams also produced two champs.

Five members of the armed forces were in the finals, and the only one to lose—Max Walters, an Alexandria, Va., sailor, lost to other service man, Sergeant Ali La Breque of Holyoke, Mass., stationed at Indiantown Gap, Pa. La Breque won by a knockout in the third round of the light-heavy finals.

Private Dale Heersche, a soldier from Fort Wayne, Ind., stationed at Newark, N. J., knocked out Bob Phillips of Philadelphia in the first round to win the middleweight crown; Ballesando Canabua, merchant marine sailor, knocked out Bill Smith, Philadelphia, in the first round in the welterweight finals, and Ed Ervin, New York University student and an army reservist, outpointed Bill Gilliam of Newark in the heavyweight finals for the other service victories.

Georges took four from Walkers by forfeit, but with the pressure off, came out with 2502, and had a 912 single. The Blue and White nabbed four from the United with Cal Lawson clipping 550 and Tony Pratz stringing 528. This turned into an exciting match with every point taken, a close one.

Sports Roundup

BY HUGH FULLETON, JR.
New York, Mar. 18 (P)—The National Collegiate A. A. won't be holding its usual golf and tennis championships this spring, although the track meet probably will go on as usual. . . the reason, of course, is that by the time these events usually are run off, most colleges will have had their commencement and there won't be many top-flight competitors hanging around. . . it seems to be the academic speed-up, rather than service calls, that are wrecking the college spring programs and by next fall Prof. Philip O. Badger, the NCAA president, figures sports "will be stabilized on a new basis." . . . Anyway, stabilized or not, it will be new.

Muscle Jerks—When the Yankees used the Asbury Park, N. J., high school for calisthenics Tuesday, some of the students watched from the bleachers. . . the muscular maneuvers of the athletes were so funny that some of the kids laughed right out loud and had to be reprimanded for embarrassing the mighty major leaguers. . . Maybe Col. Biff Jones, the army athletic director, was seeking to provide similar entertainment when he suggested that the Dodgers start work in the West Point field house a little earlier so the cadets could see some real expensive ivory on the hoof.

Today's Guest Star—Al Wolf, Los Angeles Times: "One very articulate Hollywood boxing fan, who used to scream 'downstairs' when he wanted a pug to shoot for his opponent's midriff, is yelling 'below deck' these days. . . He's in the navy now."

One-minute Sport Page—The crack soccer team composed of performers in the Ringling-Barnum and Bailey circus has been disbanded because of wartime difficulties. . . Syd Howe, who played hockey for the Red Wings all winter and held down a defense job in Detroit, received a watch from his fellow tool and die makers the other night in recognition of his performances on the ice. . . Leona Hertz, daughter of the noted Chicago race boss owner, is working in the publicity business in New York. . . The New York University track team, first to win both the intercollegiate 4A and the AAT indoor championships, is slated to visit Red Cross headquarters to make a mass blood donation Saturday.

Jockey Eddie de Camillis, out of action because of injuries, has bought a hotel at Havre de Grace, Md.—where he won't be bothered by racing fans for some time.

ARMSTRONG'S EYES TERMED AS PERFECT

Philadelphia, March 18 (P)—Two years ago Hammerin' Henry Armstrong, former triple boxing champion, quit the ring because of eye trouble, but today his vision is termed perfect.

Armstrong, who meets Ali Tribiani here Monday in his first eastern comeback fight, was examined yesterday by Dr. Ralph Lanciano at the request of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission. Said Lanciano:

"With 20-20 vision Armstrong is qualified to pass air corps requirements."

TRAINING CAMP BRIEFS

Cairo, Ill., Mar. 18 (P)—The world champion St. Louis Cardinals drilled for nearly three hours Wednesday in an encouraging workout that removed some of the sting from the possible early army induction of Captain Jimmy Brown. . . Batting practice occupied most of the time. . . Outfielders Frank Demaree, with blisters on his heels, and Coaker Triplett, suffering from an intestinal disturbance, were the only players excused.

Asbury Park, N. J., Mar. 18 (UP)—The number of New York Yankees holdouts was reduced to four when Outfielder George Stinnerback signed his 1943 contract. Those still outside the fold, all key men, are Catcher Bill Dickey, Infielder Joe Gordon and Frankie Crosetti and Outfielder Charley Keller.

LaFayette, Ind., Mar. 18 (P)—Buddy Rosar, earmarked for duty as Cleveland's No. 1 catcher, declared "this club is going to be darned tough to beat this year." Rosar, acquired from the New York Yankees in a winter deal said "being traded to the Indians was a break for me. If I had caught 100 games a year for the Yankees, in the eyes of the public, I'd still have been a second-string catcher. That's how high Bill Dickey stands—and rightly so. With the Indians, I hope to be a regular."

Cape Girardeau, Mo., Mar. 18 (P)—The St. Louis Browns put a break in the weather to good use with their first long batting workout on the practice field. Pitcher John Niggeling, although 10 pounds underweight because of a recent stomach ailment, took the lead in mound work followed by Al Hollinsworth, Steve Sundra and Nelson Potter.

Evansville, Ind., Mar. 18 (P)—Rookie Joe Hoover, the only shortstop in the Detroit Tiger training camp, belted a long home run off Tommy Bridges in his first trip to the plate in batting practice. As Hoover was purchased sight unseen for $25,000 from Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League last fall, Manager Steve O'Neill was properly elated by the 360-foot drive.
